Orchestra Notes S2 Q4 Week 5

Dear Orchestra Parents,

SOLO AND ENSEMBLE PERFORMANCE EVALUATION IS ONE WEEK AWAY

We are polishing our pieces right now- almost all of the groups are ready to perform on Saturday, April 29 at Milton. I am available every morning to help groups practice. I am so proud of the effort being made by the students who are participating in this event. Here is a copy of the letter that was given out to students before spring break with the performance times, what to wear, etc.

Essential Elements Interactive

Students are doing an outstanding job of accomplishing playing goals in orchestra using EEi on their tablets! Here is the webpage where the assignments are listed: <http://nmsperforms.org/eei/>. If you would like to hear your young musician's recordings or see their comments and grades in EEi, just let me know and I am happy to help you set up a parent account or send recordings and screenshots.

First NMS Disney Trip is a SUCCESS- becomes a tradition!

The 8th grade orchestra and chorus Disney trip was a resounding success and will become a NMS tradition! Next year’s dates will be announced as soon as possible and current seventh graders are encouraged to start saving up for the cost of the trip! Seventh Grade is going to start playing Disney music for fun after the spring concert.

Atlanta Opera Field Trip

The Atlanta Opera Field was a lot of fun! MANY thanks to all of our wonderful chaperones. Each year the Opera will present a different production, so we will definitely go again next year to get a good feel for Opera in general. It is an acquired taste, so to speak. ☺

SAVE THE DATE

Our spring concert and awards ceremony is Thursday, May 18 at 7pm in the gym. I need a volunteer to pick up our Rhodes Bakery treats, and set them up and monitor them right after the concert. Please email me if you can help.

Future Concert Dates

The concert dates are listed in the orchestra handbook and on this page:
